RECORD TO BE KEPT OF ALL WHO MOVE

Ordinance Presented to City Council at Meeting Last Night

WHITE WAY GOES OVER

Final Action Expected March 28—To Improve Four Squares on South Washington Street.

An ordinance making it obligatory on the part of owners of all vans, trucks and the like engaged in moving household goods from one house to another report immediately to the police department and that the police keep a record at headquarters of all such persons moving, whether in or out of the city, was presented to City Council last night and referred to the committee on general laws It is provided in the ordinance that a fine will be imposed for failure to make such report.

One of the principal reasons for this ordinance, it was explained by Councilman Fletcher, is to protect merchants who sell goods, especially those who sell on the installment plan. Councilman Lawler expressed himself as favoring the proposition, and declared it had worked successfully in Richmond for many years past.

Common Council receded from its former action on the two ordinances for the proposed white way on King street between Fairfax and Patrick streets, a distance of seven squares, and concurred in the action of the aldermen at their last meeting in referring the ordinances to the joint committee on light, finance and streets, and now the ordinance will come up for final action, unless otherwise advanced, at the next regular meeting of common council March 28 The aldermen at their last meeting added the street committee to the list of committees to which the ordinance was referred. This was why the lower branch of Council had to act again on the measure.

Councilman McCaffrey wanted Councilman Devers placed on the committee of reference, but this was deemed out of order.

The sum of $650, or as much thereof as may be necessary, was appropriated to purchase new tires for No. 1 pumping engine, and the sum of $281 was appropriated for the purchase of six batteries for the fire department.

An ordinance fixing the crown and curb grades of the roadway on Washington street between Duke and Franklin streets, a distance of four squares, which is to be improved this spring, was adopted. A resolution appropriating $990 for general repairs for streets was adopted.

A resolution appropriating $200 to tide the health department over for the recent fiscal year was referred to the joint committee on finance and health.

Dr. Kate Waller Barrett petitioned that City Council appropriate the sum of $300 for the Children's Home, now at Clifton, Fairfax County, which was formerly given by Council when the home was located on Duke street, was referred to he joint committee on finance and poor.

The Alexandria Trades Council petitioned Council to adopt an ordinance requiring all moving picture establishments to have two operators, including an apprentice, at their places to protect the welfare of employes and patrons. It was referred to the committee on general laws.

Petition of L K. Recker to move house at 213 South Fayette street 75 feet west and to move houses at 206 and 208 South Fayette street from the east to the west side of that thoroughfare was presented. W. H. Robinson, of 215 South Fayette street, who lives nearby, was given the floor, and he expressed himself as opposed to the request being granted. The matter was referred to the street committee. A petition of Charles Venner to raze one-story frame building in alley on Pitt street and move it to the southeast corner of Pitt and Oronoco streets, was referred to street committee, as was also petition of Mrs. Mary G. Fawcett to reshingle part of house at 517 Prince street. In the absence of President H. R. Burke, Vice President C. W. Wattles presided.

Police Commissioners

Will Not Fill Vacancy Caused by Resignation of Extra Policeman

The board of police commissioners will hold their regular monthly meeting tonight in the office of Mayor J. M. Duncan The board will not elect a sucessor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Luther H. Hayden as the time of the three extra men named by the commissioners would expire April 1 and already two out of the three men named have resigned. These men were simply placed on duty for the winter months. So far as known only routine business will be presented to the board.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, March 15.—Federal Prohibition Commissioner Royal A. Haynes has decided to divide the United States into eighteen divisions in the hope of adding to the efficiency of the various units having to do with the enforcement of the prohibition law. Each of these divisions will be in charge of a general prohibition agent, who will carry the title of divisional chief, general prohibition agents. These men have been selected because of their peculiar fitness, experience, executive ability and trustworthiness. These chiefs will have full 4control of officers assigned to their divisions and will, with the force under their supervision, make every effort to more strictly enforce the "dry" law.

In the Fourth District will be included these counties in the state of Virginia:

Frederick, Clarke, Loudoun, Fairfax, Prince William, Fauquier, Rappahannock, Page, Shenandoah, Warren and Rockingham.

In the Fifth district, which will take in the entire state of North Carolina, all the other counties in Virginia save those mentioned in the Fourth district, will be included in the new distribution arranged by Commissioner Haynes.

Representative Hawes, Democrat, of Missouri, thus describes the bonus bill as framed by the Republican Ways and Means Committee:

"It is an unfortunate child. Its father was haste, its mother was fright, and its name is bunk. The measure now under consideration proposes to sell the soldier a gold brick to secure his vote It is a get-rich quick scheme which if presented by a private citizen would be outlawed by the Blue Sky law in every state. The 'gag' rule forbidding debate will have one advantage It will prevent a deluge of 'sob stuff' speeches. It has but two understandable motives; to save a vote or gain a vote. When the soldier understands he will condemn and his anger will increase as his perplexities multiply. The citizen will secure the truth from the tax collector and add his anger to that of the soldier. As a member of the American Legion I'm not bound to support any bill that nine congress men write. If the Legion camps will read the bill I'm sure they will oppose it."

Nearly 70,000,000 tons of bituminous and anthracite coal will be above ground by April 1 when the nation-wide strike of miners of scheduled to begin Exact reports of the amount will not be available from government sources for several days.

That a strike is almost inevitable was the belief today of many officials. Secretary of Labor Davis conferred with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, in an effort to bring about a settlement of the difficulties now existing between the operators and the miners over an increase in the wage scale. In the event of a walkout, the nation could operate mills, factories, railroads and utilities for several weeks. Non-union miners, especially in the West Virginia fields, are looked to for the production of several millions of tons of bituminus coal each week during a strike. President Harding, upon his return from vacation, may take some action that will make more clear the government's attitude toward a strike. The government's policy thus far revealed is to remain neutral as regards the merits of the controversy but to protect the public against a stoppage of railroad operation. The government also would be under obligation to protect mines which might attempt to operate during the strike

3000 PERSONS FILE RETURNS

But Few Persons Wait Till Final Day For Income Tax

Local Office to Keep Open Tonight Till All Are Accommodated

Approximately 3,000 persons had filed income tax returns up to 1 o'clock this afternoon with the local office, which is located on the second floor of the postoffice building.

The officials at this office today were not rushed, and this was explained by L. B. Howard, division chief, who stated that practically all who had returns to make had already filed them, not desiring to wait until the last day. This being the last day for making of returns, in order to avoid a penalty being imposed the officials at the local office propose to keep open tonight until all persons are accommodated.

As heretofore stated, the number of persons who have filed returns is greater than last year.

The force at the local office will be kept busy for several days, beginning tomorrow, checking up the returns received.

ARLINGTON TO HAVE FLOAT IN PAGEANT

Clarendon, Va., March 15.—Arlington County is to be represented at the historical pageant to be held in Richmond for a week during the month of May.

Mrs. Lloyd T. Everett, of Ballston, headed a delegation before the board of supervisors Monday afternoon and was promised their support and use of truck for the float. A mass meeting will be held in the courthouse next Monday night, when arrangements will be made for selection of sponsor for the county and of two knights from veterans of the world war.

Portsmouth — Portsmouth may have a councilwoman—the first in the history of this city. Mrs. Carrie Sykes, chairman of the women's Democratic organization of this city and a member of the city Democratic executive committee, has announced her candidacy for a seat on city council of Portsmouth She will receive the endorsement of the women's Democratic body.

BONUS FRIENDS ARE WARNED BY ATTY. GENERAL

Necessity of Raising Funds Must Be Considered —Deplores Cost

$500,000,000 NEEDED

Dougherty Calls Attention to Huge Sum to be Raised to Pay Soldier Bonus.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 15.—A new phase of the soldier bonus problem came to light here yesterday when Attorney General Daugherty, who is accompanying the President on the Florida vacation, revealed the fact that claims are pending before the Department of Justice aggregating $1,250,000,000, practically all of which must be settled within another year.

If the Government adjusts these claims on a basis of 50 cents on the dollar, the Attorney General feels that the country will be licky. The necessity of financing an outlay of from five to six hundred million in this connection, Mr. Daugherty said, must be taken into consideration along with a bonus expenditure and others that need to be provided for during the coming year.

In the course of his interview today, the first interview with any member of the party since it left Washington, the Attorney General deplored the fact that the coal operators showed no inclination to participate in a preliminary conference with the miners upon the question of a new wage scale.

The attorney general took occasion to warn that the threatened coal strike is not a private quarrel; that it involved the vital interests of the public, and that the public would of necessity turn to its Government for protection in the event of an emergency.

"I think it was a mistake on the part of the operators to hold out against a preliminary conference with the mine workers," the attorney general said "There is a contractual relation between these two interests. They agreed under the terms of the 1920 scale agreement to meet and discuss a new scale. They ought to do so. And it is fair to remind them that the Government itself is a party to this contract and, therefore, has a right to take a hand in the business.

"Also all parties involved might remember that the present dispute is not a private affair. The public is interestd and its rights must be protected by the government, as I think they will be, so far as may be possible.

"I hope the strike will not take place, of course, but if it does those immediately involved might remember that the country must not be left without the fuel necessary to maintain transportation and essential industries"

Referring to the claims that are now before the department of justice, the Attorney General revealed for the first time the enormous aggregate that had piled up since the war. Nor does that amount mentioned by him include a large part of the claims against the shipping board, nor more than $500,000,000 in claims before the Department of State which this Government hopes to collect from Germany.

"It might interest those who are debating the question of a soldier bonus," the attorney general said, "to know that in round numbers claims involving $1,250,0000,000 are now on file under the roof of the Department of Justice. Of this amount $380,000,000 arise out of alleged infringement of patents alone Then there are $70,000,000 which come out of the Shipping Board The board's claims, however, do not include those now being dealt with by the claims commission set up by the board itself.

VICTORY FOR TREATY FORCES IN FIRST TEST

Robinson Amendment to Four-Power Pact Is Defeated 55-30

4 REPUBLICANS TURN

Senator Weller Not Present—Adherents of Ratification Are Encouraged by Yesterday's Vote.

Washington, March 15.—The vote yesterday on the Robinson amendment to the Four-Power treaty resulted in victory for the Administration forces, the amendment beinb beaten, 55 to 30.

This vote, the first that has been taken in the fighting over the treaty, strengthened the belief of Senators Lodge and Underwood, leading the treaty forces, that it will be ratified, but it can not be taken as conclusive.

Various cross-currents affected the voting on the amendment. Inasmuch as only a majority was needed to defeat the amendment, and that was entirely assured, several treaty supporters, among them Senator Weller, of Maryland, were absent.

On the other hand, it was reported that one or two senators who voted with the Administration forces against the amendment will vote against the Administration when the ratification ballot is taken. Again, it was said some Democrats who voted for the amendment will line up finally for the treaty.

On the whole, however, the treaty supporters are fairly confident that when the ratification ballot is taken they will be safe with a margin of two or three votes at least. It appears that Senator Underwood's leadership of the treaty fight on the democratic side, while not able to command a majority of party associate, is strong enough to prevent a general collapse and to do considerably better than offset the Republicans who have left the Administration.

In yesterday's ballott there were four Republicans in favor of the Robinson amendment—Borah, Johnson, LaFollette and France. Four Democrats voted against the amendment—Underwood, Williams, Pomerene and Ransdell. It is likely that the Republican defection will not be increased and that the Democrat support of the treaty will be larger in the ratification vote. It may be double what it was today or a little better.

After the defeat of the amendment proposed by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the main provision of which was to bring nations other than those signing the treaties into conference called to adjust differences in the Far East, Senator Walsh, of Montana, offered a similar but modified amendment. It was voted down after debate, 50 to 27. There were no changes among the senators voting, the difference between the result and the result in the vote on the Robinson amendment being due to senators on both sides leaving the Chamber.

BRICKYARDS NARROW ESCAPE

Veto of Gov. Trinkle Saves Those In Arlington County

Measure Had Been Passed by Both Branches of State Legislature

The brickyards in Arlington county had a narrow escape from being put out of business by the state legislature which has just adjourned. Both branches of that body passed a bill introduced by Delegate Charles Henry Smith at the request of many residents of the county, to prohibit the making of permanent, uncovered excavations exceeding 5,000 square feet in area, and five feet in depth, within half a mile of a subdivision which has been dedicated and recorded for five years prior to the passage of the act and to prohibit the making of such excavations within the said county unless said excavations will, without pumping or other artificial aid, drain to some natural drainage course or outlet.

Attorney Gardner L. Boothe, of this city, representing owners of a number of brickyards in Arlington county, at once went to Richmond and protested against the enactment of the ordinance, explaining that it would mean that five brickyards giving employment to a large number of persons would be put out of business. The reslut was that the measure was vetoed by Gov. Trinkle and the brickyards may continue their operations.

It is understood that persons living in subdivisions n Arlington county are opposed to the brickyards near their property.

SEEK LOWER GAS FOR CLARENDON

Citizens 'Association Also Condemns Rates For Electricity

Clarendon, Va., March 15.—A lower gas rate for Arlington County was advocated at the meeting of the Citizens' Association last night, and the committee on public Utilities was instructed to enlist the support of the chamber of commerce and other civic bodies in the movement.

As the county's supply comes from Georgetown it was pointed out that the present $1.60 rate is excessive in view of the recent reduction to $1.05 in Washington.

The electricity rates were also condemned, particularly the charge of 20 cents for the first five kilowatt hours, and the apparent indifference on the part of the lighting company to extending its service was noted.

STORM IN SOUTH FATAL TO 27 MANY ARE HURT

Sections of Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Oklahoma

BIG PROPERTY LOSS

Death List Expected to be Increased When Wire Communication is Restored

New Orleans, March 15.—At least 27 persons were killed and many others were seriously injured as a result of a series of storms, at places reaching proportions of tornadoes, which visited isolated sections of Louisiana, Mississppi, Arkansas and Oklahoma last night and early today.

The heaviest loss of life reported was at Gowen, Oklahoma, a village 15 miles east of McAlester, where 12 persons were killed when a tornado swept through the foreign section of the village last night. Many others were slightly injured.

Four white persons and six negroes were killed when the storm passed through the northeastern section of Jefferson county and the southeastern section of Lonoke County, Ark., early yesterday The storm in this section left a trial of wrecked buildings for 20 miles. Several were slightly injured, none seriously.

At Sulphur, Okla., two white men were killed late yesterday. Nineteen others were seriously injured and scores suffered slight injuries. Property damage is estimated at $100,000 Fifty buildings were completely demolished and 200 people were left homeless.

At Sun Rise, a village of 2 miles north of Baton Rouge, a negro woman and her child were killed. Four others were slightly injured there early today.

Twelve persons were injured, a number seriously, when the storm struck Corinth, Miss., today. More than 150 homes were leveled. The storm swept a path more than 100 feet wide, razing every building in its path.

Reports from outlying districts tell of considerable property damage, A school building in which were several hundred children barely escaped the path of the storm.

An aged negro man was killed, several negroes were slightly injured and a score of houses was destroyd at Arkansas City, Ark., early today. Two homes were destroyed and one man was injured near Alexander, La., when the storm passed there last night.

Only meagre details are available from the sections visited by the storm on account of the damage to wire communications, and it is feared the death toll will be greatly increased when complete returns are available.

Little effort has been made to estimate the property damage, which in addition to destroyed homes and other buildings, includes damage to crops and destruction of livestock. Rivers and smaller streams in practically all the sections visited by the storm which was accompanied by heavy rains are swollen and some apprehension is felt on this score.

The storm was accompanied by the usual freaks, the most outstanding of which was reported from Kennet, Ark., where a 12 day old infant was blown from a bed on which it was lying across the yards where the clothing held it suspended to a picket fence, until the storm abated.

The baby's parents were seriously injured.

Elks' Social Tonight

A big social session will be given tonight by Alexandria Lodge No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks The committee in charge of the entertainment invites all members to attend and an lively and interesting program is promised throughout the evening. Only members of the order will be admitted.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY

SENATE.

Met at noon and recessed at 5:50 p. m. until 12 o'clock today.

In its first roll call on any issue of the Four-Power Pacific treaty the Senate rejected by a vote of 55 to 30 the amendment by Senator Robinson (Democrat), Arkansas, designed to extend the benefits of the pact to non-signatory nations whose interests are affected.

Senators Borah, France, Johnson and LaFollette (Republicans) supported the amendment and four Democrats—Underwood, Pomerene, Ransdell and Williams—voted against it.

Later a modified form of the Robinson amendment was proposed by Senator Walsh (Democrat), Montana, and rejected by a vote of 50 to 27.

During a speech in advocacy of the pending treaty Senator McCumber (Republican), North Dakota, formally proposed the creation of an associations, and contended the pending treaty was such an association for the maintenance of peace in the Pacific.

HOUSE

Met at noon and adjourned at 5 p. m. until noon to day.

Chairman Anthony, of the subcommittee which framed the army appropriation bill, opening general debate on the measure, declared the committee wa sable to reduce expenditures by stopping up "a number of rat holes," the chief of which were the use of large numbers of troops in Hawaii and the Panama Canal zone.

Although the bill as it came from the Appropriations Commitee fixed the enlisted personnel at 115,000, Representative Sisson, of Mississippi, ranking Democrat on the committee, announced a movement to further reduce the enlisted strength to 100,000.

Representative Anthony disclaimed any purpose of criticizing the general staff of the army, but he declared there was something in the declaration of Lord Lee, recently a member of the Arms Conference, that if the British general staff had its way garrisons would be maintained on the moon.

After hearing treasury officials the committee, by a vote of 19 to 5, ordered the bill favorably reported, with the bank loan provision intact. Three Democrats, Representatives Kitchin, Garner and Collier, and two Republicans, Representatives Treadway and Tilson, voted against the measure. By the same vote the committee rejected an amendment under which the bonus would have been financed by a sales tax.

On thet floor o fthe House Representative Garrett, Democratic leader, earlier in the day asked Republican Leader Mondell to inform members when the bill would be taken up and in what manner it would be considered. Mr. Mondell said accurate information would be given in ample time for absent members to return.

Replying to a question by Mr. Mondell, Representative Garner, ranking Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee, announced he would vote against the bill.

MASS MEETING MOVE INDORSED

Commerce Directors Go On Record For Gathering March 27

Purpose is to Nominate Candidates for Council to Run in Election In June

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce held March 13 the board unanimously indorsed the action of the Citizens' League for a mass meeting in the interest of the council manager plan form of city government and have mailed the following letter to all members:

To All Members:

At their regular monthly meeting last Monday, your Board of Directors strongly endorsed the plan to hold a mass meeting on March 27th, to formulate some definite program to select the best possible candidates for the new council to be elected in June, and appointed the undersigned committee to urge our entire membership to take an active interest in the matter.

It is our understanding, that this meeting will have for its sole object the working out of a plan, by all of the different interests in our city, which will enable us to secure the best qualified men to stand for election in June, and is to be entirely free from any group or political control and this makes it the duty of all of our voters to participate in making it a success.

Will you not be there in person and urge your friends to be there, as the entire success of our new form of city government will be dependent on the selection of the right men in the beginning and this can only be done with the actual help of all of those who have our city's welfare at heart?

Yours very truly,
Robert S. Jones,
R. E. Knight.
W. A. Smoot,
Committee.

ARGUMENTS ARE POSTPONED TILL SATURDAY

Inability of Attorney J. S. Barbour to be Here Cause

BOND NEWSPAPER MAN

A. Cloyd Gill of Washington Required to Give $500 Bond to Appear Before Grand Jury.

The making of final arrangements in the divorce investigation slated to have been begun at 10 o'clock this morning in the Corporation Court room before the special committee of seven of the Alexandria Bar Association enaged in the divorce probe, was postponed until 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

This action wa staken following the announcement that Attorney John S. Barbour of Fairfax, representing Judge Moncure in the proceedings, would be unable to be present until Friday or Saturday, he being ill with throat trouble.

The committee then adopted a resolution offered by Attorney J. Randall Caton that Judge Moncure be requested to forego his purpose of presenting to the Grand Jury summoned for Friday, March 17, all matters pertaining to the divorce situation now being investigated by this committee until a report of the committee has been filed.

The judge will await the final ree port of the committee before he has the Grand Jury start its probe into the divorce situation. The jury will, however, meet as per schedule Friday morning and take up a long list of criminal cases now on the docket. It is expected that the jury will not begin its probe into the divorce situation before Tuesday.

A surprise was sprung in the Corporation Court immediately after the committee had adjourned when A. Cloyd Gill, a representative of the Washington Times, who has been covering the divorce investigation for that paper, was called by the judge and placed under bond in the sum of $500 to appear before the grand jury when it meets to tell what he knows about divorce conditions here. Mr Gill and Attorney Frank Stuart appeared greatly surprised. The court directed that Mr. Gill be in custody of Sergeant Cox until he furnished the required bond. Mr. Gill soon had the wires busy, and a messenger was dispatched, following a hasty consultation with Attorney Frank Stuart, to the office of Attorney Gardner L. Boothe, and soon thereafter Mr. Boothe appeared and went on the bond of Mr. Gill in the sum of $500, and Mr. Gill left the court and will be here when the grand jury meets Mr. Boothe is a member of the committee that is engaged in investigating the divorce situation here.

The reason for the court taking this action is because Mr. Gill is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, his home being in Washington, D. C. The law provides that a non-resident needed before a grand jury shall give bond. Mr Gill is needed before the Grand Jury to tell the jury just what he knows concerning the divorce situation here.

There were comparatively few persons in court when Judge Moncure called his court to order immediately after the Bar Association had left and Mr. Gill had arrived only a short time before and was handed a summons by Sergeant Cox to appear before the Grand Jury scheduled to meet Friday.

Irish Recital

Mrs. Mattie Wade Woolls will give the second of a series of recitals by her pupils Friday evening, March 17th, at 8:15 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall Only Irish songs will be sung. The program is as follows: "That Old Irish Mother of Mine," Miss Annie Moore; Irish Reading, Miss Grace Genzberger; "Come Back to Erin," Miss Ethyle Baker; "When You And I Were Young Maggie," Miss Orene Bruce; "Wild Irish Rose," Miss Virginia Hunter; "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," Miss Evelyn Crane; "Violin Solo Meditation Thais," Mr. Alvin Friedlander; "Irish Lullaby," Miss Grace Gensberger; "Where The River Shannon Flows," Miss Sara Spindler; "A Little Bit of Heaven," Miss Catherine Elliott; "You'll Soon Forget Kathleen," Miss Louise Schwarzmann; "That Tumbled Down Shack in Athlone," Miss Gretta Ludwig; Piano Solo, Miss Carolina Yates; "The Last Rose of Summer," Miss Maragret Abramson; "When I Dream of Old Erin, I'm Dreaming of You," Miss Eleanor Melchoir; "I Will Take You Home Kathleen," Mrs. Mattie Wade Woolls.

There once was a plumber named Nelligan,
Whose wife was quite ill, though she's well again,
When her husband heard that
He exclaimed: "Oh, my hat!
Now as likely as not I'll get hell agin!"

WORLD FRATERNITY

To one who has made a study of the condition of Europe for some years after the French Revolution, there is much ground for encouragement in the European situation at the present time. We mention the French Revolution of the 18th century, because that is the only period in which to seek an analogy to the World War epoch. Revolutions there had been before that, just as bloody and relentless; even of larger scope and greater loss of life—but that revolution, while confined to French territory, was in reality a world-revolution. In other words two new principles were set free among the nations of the earth—those of liberty and equality. The antecedent revolutions, notably the American Revolution, were not the climax and culmination of preceding centuries—as indubitably was the Revolution of 1789. The Anglo-Saxons had attained their democracy with the signing of the Magna Carta in 1215. The succeeding revolutions among the English race were but additions to and amplifications of that great instrument, and solely national in their influence. Whereas, with the French Revolution began the downfall of monarchy and the privileged classes. For the first time the world was made aware of the fundamental and abiding principles of Democracy. The history of England was instructive and that country was instrumental in pointing the way. But the world needed the shock of the Reign of Terror and the fathomless deluge of pamphlets that followed, to fully arouse itself to a realization of the fact that all men were created free and equal. The shibboleth of the French Revolution was "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity." The first two of the trinity took their place in the firmament as shining stars for the guidance of mankind thenceforth and forever. The last, however, like a lost Pleiad, was still invisible to the gaze of humanity—although existent and eternal as its sisters. It needed the shock and upheaval of the world-war to clear the reek and smoke of materialism that obscured the heavens and to display the brightest star of the three — Fraternity. The world-war was inevitable—a logical sequence of the French Revolution.

We call the principle of Fraternity the greatest of the trinity—Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity—because the first two are of human relationship only—while the last recognizes the Divine as supreme in the governance of mankind. There can be no other inference; the brotherhood of man involves inextricably and incontrovertibly, the fatherhood of God!

It has been three years and more since the armistice was signed. But the disturbances that have fretted Europe and the world since, are the natural consequences of the birth of a new principle in the affairs of mankind—and that principle the mightiest and farthest-reaching of any since prehistoric ages. Perhaps centuries instead of years will be required for the new adjustment. But with the present alignments and modifications fairly in process, there is good reason to hope that the next decade or two will see the world started in its new path of peace and international government by law instead of force. Man has conquered both space and time within the past hundred years. He is even now on the verge of further startling discoveries that serve to annihilate the physical limitations of his environment. This was necessary, perhaps, before he could achieve his complete spiritual enfranchisement. At any rate the European situation is far better, and the recovery from the devastations of war are far more rapid, than the readjustments after the French Revolution.

This is the why and wherefore of the optimistic mood in which we began this editorial.

Assembly to Test Voting By Machine

Voting by machinery may be tested by the General Assembly as a time saver. A proposal has been received by the House of Delegates from the Thompson Voting Machine Company, of Washington, D. C., to make the test free of cost to the State and to install a complete system on trial for use at the beginninga of the next session.

Marshall F. Thompson, designer of the system and vice-president of the company, has been in the city for several days in the interest of his company. Mr. Thompson is a nephew of W. H. Thompson, Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Department of this city, and son of Charles F. Thompson, who was born in this city, where he spent his boyhood days.

The purpose of the electrical voting system is to save the time now wasted in voting and calling the roll in legislative assemblies. While it requires ten or twelve minutes to call the roll in the usual manner, the entire operation can be performed by the Thompson system in less than thirty seconds. Such a system would be of invaluable help in the House of Delegates as it would add a week or more to each session, and permit of enactment of much legislation which would otherwise fail because the sessions are limited by the Constitution to sixty days.

Floor leader Willis declared a few days ago on the floor of the House that the time had arrived when an electrical voting system is a necessity for disposing of the business of the House or the Constitution will have to be amended increasing the length of the sessions.—Evening Dispatch.

Note, Mr. Marshall F. Thompson, the designer of the apparatus mentioned above, is an Alexandria boy, having been born in this city and educated in its public schools.

MEN BLIND TO WOMAN'S SUFFERING

How many men, think you, have any idea of the pain endured by women in their own household, and often without a murmur? They have no patience when the overworked wife and mother begins to get pale, have headaches, backaches, faint spells, or is melancholy and cannot sleep. There is help for every woman in this condition, as evidenced by the many voluntary letters of recommendation which we are continually publishing in this paper for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to give it a trial.

In the books of Exodus and Ecclesiastes the ornaments of the high priest's ephod include bells, so that "their sound might be heard when ever he goeth in or cometh out of the sanctuary."

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mid week prayer services will be held in the churches of the city tonight.

Master Elwood Markell is quite sick at his home in North Pitt street.

The Rev. C M. Young, of Washington, will preach in Grace Church tonight at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Theodore Cook who has been quite sick at her home in Queen street for some time, is improving.

Mrs. C. Keith Carlin, of Alexandria, is visiting Mrs. C. C. Carlin, at Hotel Traymore, Atlantic City.

William Blake of University of Virginia is spending the week with his parents in North Columbus street.

A meeting of the Alexandria Rod and Gun Club will be held at eight o'clock tomorrow night in the rooms of the Chamber of Cmmerce.

Mrs. Maggie Booth is able to be out again after having been sick at her home in North Royal street for the past ten days.

Miss Thelma Nevelle who has been confined to her home in North Royal street with pneumonia, is getting along nicely.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Immanuel Lutheran Church will have a regular meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. William Hellmuth, 108 North Alfred street.

A meeting of the Crystal Athletic Club will be held tonight at 1301 King street for the purpose of discussing plans for the coming base ball season. All members of the club are expected to be presnt.

The regular meeting of the Study Class of the Golden Links Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 16, in the reading room of the Young People's Building.

By a decree entered in the Circuit Court for Alexandria Albert Fletcher, Jr., of Warrenton, Va., was yesterday granted an absolute divorce from Emily Forbes Fletcher of the same place.

At the Methodist Protestant Church on North Washington street, there will be held special evangelistic services tonight at 7:45 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Robert Browne, will take as his subject, "Life's Barrier's." All people of the city are cordially invited to be present.

Tonight at the midweek service at St. Paul's the two lectures on St. Paul's epistles by Professor Rollins will be discussed. Charts of the epistles will be shown and different translations will be exhibited. At 9 p. m prayers for the sick will be offered.

"Way Down East" drew large numbers to the Richmond Theatre last night as did "The Four Horsemen," to the Idle Hour. Both of these great pictures are being run again today. The Ingomar is featuring George Chesebro in "For the Love of Service."

Congressman Cooper, of Ohio, will be the speaker at the weekly meeting at the Westminster Building Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Congressman Cooper is said to be one of the best orators in Congress and an excellent talk is expected, there will also be a special musical program.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association at West End School was held in that building yesterday afternoon with the largest attendance of the year. The excllent work of Mrs. F. Clinton Knight, who serves as a committee of one on membership, has resulted in the doubling of enrollment. Interest in the coming teachers' convention was manifested by a willingness to cooperate in every way with the committee arranging for the entertainment of the visiting teachers.

The Alexandria High School Midgets took another step towards the goal of their ambition (the city championship) last night when they defeated the Friends A. C. Reserves in the High School auditorium, by the score of 12 to 7. Anderson of the winners and Padgett of the losers were the main point scorers of the game.

Will of Mrs. A. E. Service Admitted To Probate

In the Circuit Court for this city today the will of Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Service, dated September 28, 1919, was admitted to probate. D. J. Howell is named as executor and he qualified as such.

Twenty Dollars Reward

Ran away from the subscriber on Tuesday the eight instant a negro man named

JOHN PEMBROKE

About 6 feet high, rather slender made and likely—he is rather a dark mulattoe, 35 years of age. He is a good carpenter and wheel wright. It is believed that he had no other clothes with him, than what he had on; a round blue jacket, and a pair of striped home spun small clothes. He has many relations among the negroes and it is thought that he may be lurking among them in Alexandria or Georgetown. The above reward with all reasonable expenses will be given for apprehending or securing him in any jail, if taken out of the county and giving me notice of it, and ten dollars if taken in the county, DAVID STUART, Fairfax county, near Alexandria, March Fifteenth.

Church History Lectures

The second lecture in the course on church history will be given by the Rev. Dr. Morton in Christ Church tonight at 8 o'clock.

This lecture will deal with the period immediately following the writing of the New Testament, and what happened after the passing away of the Twelve Apostles, and others of that generation who had been personally acquainted with the man Jesus Christ.

The average Christian knows little about this period of the early church. Who were the new leaders? What were the important facts and the interesting features of church life in those early days? These are some of the questions with which this lecture will deal, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in these subjects to attend.

Mr. Stockton, the new organist of Christ Church, will give an organ recital from 7:40 to 8:00 o'clock.

Sells Store Building

Frederick Schuler and others have sold to Hugh Herfurth, Jr., the store building on the north side of King street between Pitt and St. Asaph streets, known as 505 King street. This piece of property is now occupied by E. Heidenheimer, pawnbroker, and is regarded as one of the best locations on King street.

Dr George T. Klipstein and wife have sold to Sallie Sacks house and lot No. 415 South Royal street .Deeds for both pieces of property today were placed on record in the office of the clerk of the court.

Newport News—Estimates on 18 great ocean-going liners are being asked by steamship companies, according to reports received here. All of these ships may not be built for several years, but it is generally believed that contracts for some will be let within the next several months.

NUXATED IRON

It is the organic iron in your blood that takes up oxygen from your lungs. This oxygenated organic iron unites with your digested food as it is absorbed into your blood, like fire unites with coal or wood, and by so doing it creates tremendous power and energy. Without organic iron in your blood your food merely passes through your body without doing you any good.

Organic iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples may be had from any druggist under the name of "Nuxated Iron".

Over four million people are using Nuxated Iron annually, their experience proving that it increases the strength and endurance of the weak, nervous, run-down people, in many cases, in two weeks' time.

If you want that virile force, that stamina and strength so necessary to great success in practically every undertaking in life, you owe it to yourself to commence trying Nuxated Iron today.

Canton Alexandria No. 1, Patriarchs Militant, will meet at Odd Fellows Hall Thursday night to make arrangements for a visit to Baltimore the afternoon of March 23; also to consider a visit to Washington, D. C., on Saturday night, March 18.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will convene at Lynchburg, Va., on May 9. G. Raymund Gaines has been elected representative, and Elmore Mudd alternative from Potomac Lodge No. 38, and W. H. Wade and J. R. Williams will represent Morley Encampment No. 6. C. Eugene Doyle of Clarendon, Va., has been recommended for the position of district deputy for the northern Virginia district.

VIRGINIA NEWS
PARAGRAPHED

Freeling—The latest wonder of the Cumberlands comes in the form of a one-eyed calf, which has just reached the mundane sphere at a point on Pine Creek which may be designated as the premises of Thomas C. Baker. This youngster of the bovine species is normal except the lack of the optic. Nature has distinctly "dotted" the place where the missing part should have been, as if to render the deficiency the more conspicuous. The eye being to one side instead of unicorn-like, causes the defective quadruped to emulate the crooked man that walked a crooked mile.

Norfolk — Samples of bullet-proof glass were tested out in the assembly room at headquarters recently by Colonel C. B. Borland, chief of the police, with a view of having the patrol wagons equipped with this means of protection for the drivers. Colonel Borland expressed himself as favorably impressed with the glass . The necesisty of equipping the patrol wagons with some means of protection for the men in the drivers' seats was emphasized by the shooting of Officer R. L. Jones last week by a prisoner caged in the patrol wagon. At present the driver's seat is separated from the rear apartment only by an iron grating. This affords the driver no protection from an attack that might be made by a prisoner with a knife or revolver.

Danville—It cost the town of South Boston just $3.577.11 to put on the spectacular anti-liquor crusade which recently resulted in nearly 100 warrants being issued against certain men of the town charged with violating the State liquor law. The branch national detective agency, which was employed last Christmas to conduct the drive, and which had been working incognito since that time, has presented its bill for the amount given above and the council has given its official "O. K." to the payment of the sum.

Lovers and Friends. E. F. Benson. George H. Doran Company, New York.

The dividing line between a prig and a hero is sometimes hard to see with the naked eye. In the case of Mr. Benson's heroes it is often nonexistent. The hero of his latest book goes serenely on his priggish way to the very last chapter, when a miracle saves him. Not only saves him but makes the reader forget his too blameless past in a glow of real liking.

Bernard, a rising young diplomat is a nice blending of Talleyrand and the Admirable Crichton, perilously near to being like the boy of whom it is written that "whatever he did and whatever he had and whatever he said, was Best." All his emotions are so carefully done up in cotton wool, so sheltered from the rude blasts of ordinary life, that it is small wonder Celia turns to Vincent who, from sheer force of contrast, seems compellingly attractive. When Celia's infatuation threatens to wreck both lives, comes the Celestial Surgeon. Stabbed broad awake by the first keen pain of his whole life, Bernard's spirit animates the real and lovable man Mr. Benson has always known him to be.

Four One-Act Plays. Lewis Beach. Brentano's New York.

The dedication of this little volume is worthy of mention: "These plays are dedicated to the reading public." It is a pleasant surprise to find that a playwright has remembered the reader, that the author's first thought was for the stay- at home lovers of the drama.

These four plays are masterpieces in their small way. "Love Among the Lions" is more widely known than the others; its wit more kindly. Lewis Beach portrays human nature with uncanny skill but it is human nature at its worst. Traits brought out in "The Clod" and "Brothers" we know exist and yet we are loth to admit them. They are not pleasant reading and it is even less pleasant to confess to ourselves that humanity can stoop so low. In the last play, "Brothers," a man seems to have reached the nadir of depravity and gred, so we turn back quickly to Riccardo and smile once more at his harmless vanity, to restore our faith in the race.

Cytherea. Joseph Hergesheimer. Alfred Knopf, New York.

This story ought to be called "Twin Sexes," because it is taken up entirely with the feelings and emotions of Lee Randon and Savina Grove, "Cytherea" is too ethereal a name for a book so completely dominated by the flesh. True, Mr. Hergsheimer gives up many pags of Lee Randon's musings or rathr close-ups of the inhibitions on which are based his amatory complex. But they fail to make his character real or to bring the reader into sympathy with his roving affections.

Mr. Hergesheimer made the fatal mistake of telling his public, somewhere in the first three pags, that Lee Randon was losing his waistline; even an obscure reviewer knows better than to do that. Years ago we learned that nobody loves a fat man; nobody except Savina Grove, of course. A beautiful soul doesn't go very far with the American reader unless it is encased in the faultless form and wears the engaging (though slightly vavuous, maybe) smile of Wallace Reid. Or, for instance, had Lee Randon possessed the fata charm of Rudolph Valentino, it would be a different story. Oh, Mr. Hergesheimer, write about jazz and parked automobiles, if you must, but don't ask us to believe in " love and the world well lost," with a fat hero!

Spicewood. Lizette Reese. The Norman Remington Company, Baltimore, Maryland.

These exquisite verses have appeared in Scribenr's Harper's and other magazines during the past two years and have proved singly and collectively the mature perfection of Miss Reese's art. Here is one poet who has never given less than her best and that best ranks with Heine and Wordsworth in its simplicity and pure emotion.

Miss Reese has never followed false gods or been led astray by the eccentricities of form and speech which have wrecked so many of the modern school She makes us understand the futility of weaving strange words into stranger phrases when, with the simplest language and a belief in the eternal verities, she can create so perfect a thing as "Daffodils." There is an almost Celtic wistfulness in many of her verses, a gentle grief for lost Love and Youth, yet there is an ever-present belief in the final triumph of Love through sublimation of self. Miss Reese teaches us anew that "Life is ever Lord of Death, and Love can never lose its own."

A WORTHY APPEAL

Richmond, Va., March .—An appeal probably novel in the history of appeals in Virginia will be flashed to every nook and corner of the Commonwealth this week when amateur radio operators will loose into the air the urgent request of the Near East Relief for funds with which to carry on its great work of succoring thousands from death overseas Oliver J. Sands, President of the American National Bank, the Virginia Pageant, and the State Chairman of the Near East Relief will write and sign the appeal.

Since the original request of the Near East Relief in Virginia for funds was made many things of historical interest have happened overseas. Terribly emancipated refugees have been driven into the zones in which the Near East operates from other sections of the East. Russian refugees from the Volga section by the hundreds of thousands, Armenians from the interior driven to the coast by hunger and suffering, death following close upon their footsteps and arriving only to find hundreds standing before the doors of the orphanages and refugees of the great American organization. Virginia is now raising $300,000 for the Near East Relief, its share in the National drive in the original program. Twice this sum is actually needed. For this reason Mr. Sands is renewing his fight for funds.

The appeal will be short. It will be a simple statement urging the people of the Commonwealth to come to the rescue of the thousands of starving children and women who cannot live without succor. Amateur operators here volunteered to send out the message.

CARE OF THE BABY

Washington, March .—The "care of the baby," a new and enlarged edition of a former publication of the same name, is contained in the recent number of the weekly Public Health Reports of the U. S. Public Health Service and is now being reprinted for general distribution. Its eminent practical character is shown in the section on bathing the baby.

Baby, it says, should be bathed at least once a day. During hot weather one or two extra sponge baths may be given; but as a rule the daily bath should be a tub bath. It can be done more quickly and thoroughly, and the baby is not so liable to take cold.

The room should be warm; an open fire is desirable in cool weather The water should be comfortably warm but not hot, about 90 degrees to 95 degrees F. It may be tested with the bare elbow, never the hand. However a bath thermometer is best.

Everything needed should be in readiness before baby is undressed. In a small wicker basket, painted pure white castile soap, a small bottle of olive oil, pure talcum powder, boric acid, four dozen safety pins of white, should be kept a cake of assorted sizes, and a roll of assorted sizes, and a roll of absorbent cotton A clean wash cloth, clean towels, and a full set of clean clothing should also be in readiness.

To undress the baby, take the cloths off over his feet. If held on the lap, a large bath towel should be used to prevent his tneder skin from coming in contact with the rough or worsted dress and to receive him when lifted out of the tub. More conveniently he may be undressed on a table.

Before putting the baby into the tub, wrap him in a small blanket or large towel, and wash his face, head, and ears, being careful not to get soap into his eyes and mouth. Very little soap is needed. It is most important that the skin should be rinsed thoroughly. Pat the skin dry with a sofe towel, taking care to dry well back of the ears and in the soft folds of his neck. The eyes should be cleansed with absorbent cotton dipped in boracic acid solution. Squeze a drop into each eye, being careful to use a fresh piece of cotton for each eye The mouth and nose then should be cleaned with an applicator dipped in boracic acid solution. An applicator is made by twisting a small tuft of absorbent cotton upon the end of a wooden tooth pick in such a way as to make a rounded pad. If made correctly, the cotton will not slip off readily. Be careful not to injure the ears. It is better to ask your physician or the nurse to show just how to cleanse them correctly.

It is well to lay a bath towel in the bottom of the tub and put in only a small amount of water at first. If baby is plunged immediately into a tub of water, he will be startled and may never enjoy a tub bath; but if the water is added gradually, while baby's attention is diverted to something else, he soon learns to enjoy the morning dip.

First soap the baby's body thoroughly; then place him in the bath, holding him with the left forearm under the neck and shoulders, the left hand under his arm, and lifting his feet and legs with the right hand. Support him while in the tub with the left hand and arm. Sponge the netire body with the right hand; then lift him out and wrap him in a bath towel. Dry carefully with the soft towel, patting the skin gently. Never rub the baby's tender skin with anything less smooth than the palm of the hand A little pure talcum powder may be used in the creases and folds of the skin, under the rams, and around the buttocks; but it should not be used so freely as to clog the pores of the skin and never should be used until the skin has been dried as thoruoghly as possible with the towel. A highly perfumed powder should not be used

The bath should be given as nearly as possible at the same hour each day, at least an hour after feeding, and at first should last only about three minutes later it may last 5 minutes,. As the baby grows older and stronger he may be allowed to play in the water for about 15 minutes, for the skin absorbs some water, which is beneficial to the system, rlaxes the muscles, and aids in over coming many wrong conditions.

HE TOLD THE WORLD

"Tell me," asked teacher of Tommy one day,
"Tell me, 'm yboy, in our own words and away,
What is a hypocrite—where is it found?"
Soid Tommy, "I know," smiled a little then frowened,
"A hypocrite, Miss, may be found in this place,
The kid who comes here with a smile on his face."—Frank A. Secord in Farm Life.

Bells rung on Christmas Eve or Christmas morning are often called "Virgin Chimes." The "Judas Bell" dates from old Catholic days, doubtless in connection with Holy week ceremonies, as are the "Judas Candles."

"WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH ME?"

Thousands Who Ask That Question Will be Interested in This Answer

Human flesh is heir to many ailments, but aside from the acute and the contagious diseases, most people become sickly from neglect. They have indigestion and do nothing for it. They get nervous and often sleep poorly and do nothing to cure themselves. From these and other causes they gradually lose strength and vitality and feel tired much of the time and often "blue" and despondent. If you feel below par take Gude's Pepto-Mangan and let it restore your strength and vitality and overcome that weakness by building up your blood to the right richness and redness. Then you will feel fine and vigorous again, and have plenty of "pep." For thirty years Gude's Pepto-Mangan has been the doctor's favorite tonic for rundown people. Sold in both liquid and table form by all druggists. Advertisement.

Suffolk—When Haywood Edwards, Sr., father of Haywood Edwards, Jr., and Frank Edwards, who were arrested charged with operating a still in Lakeside, hired a jitney and went to Nansemond County jail to see about getting his two sons out on bail, he met with an unusual reception.

Jailer Hall was absent, but Mrs. Hall was there. Although she is a small woman, and has been quite ill with grippe, she has not lost her nerve. There were two warrants out for Haywood Edwards, one for felonious shooting and another for violation of the Mapp act. Mrs. Hall decided while Haywood, Sr., was there, to serve them, and kept him at the jail. He later on secured bail for himself and his sons.

COMMON COUNCIL
(Official)

At a regular meeting of the Common Council of Alexandria, Va., held March 14, 1922, there were present C. W. Wattles, Esq., vice president, and Messrs. McCaffery, Mather, Ruben, Ticer, Reed, Desmond, Sullivan, Baggett, Lawler, Fletcher and Deavers.

Two ordinances relating to the white way on King St., which were referred to the joint committee on light and finance at the last meeting, were returned from the Board of Aldermen, now concurred in, that board having added to the joint committee the committee on streets. Council receded from its previous action and concurred in the action of the Board of Aldermen.

A resolution appropriating $650 to purchase tires for No. 1 pumping engine, and $281 to purchase six batteries for each of the fire apparatus, was recommended by the joint committee on fire and finance and passed. Ayes 12, noes 0.

A resolution appropriating $990, for general repairs of streets was offered by Mr. Lawler, and passed. Ayes 12, noes 0.

An ordinance fixing the crown and curb grades of the roadway on Washington street, from Duke to Franklin streets, was presented by Mr. Lawler and read three times and passed. Ayes 12, noes 0.

An ordinance requiring owners of all vehicles removing household goods to report to the chief of police, &c, was offered by Mr. Fletcher and referred to the committee on general laws.

Petitions from Mrs. Mary G. Fawcett to reshingle roof at No. 517 Prince street, and Charles Vernon to remove building and erect same at the corner of Pitt and Oronoco streets, and Mrs. L. K. Recker to remove and erect buildings at No. 213, 208 and 206 South Fayette street, were referred to the committee on streets.

A communication from the department of health, requesting an appropriation of $200 to pay expenses to drafting of an ordinance to require the joint committee on finance and health

Ask Your Physician Concerning The Tonall Formula

He Dare Not Dispute the Curative Qualities of Any One Ingredient

Tonall the Universal Tonic and System Builder, is the only proprietary medicine of its kind on the market which publishes formula and gives you full history of every root, herb, and bark contained therein, thirteen in number, and what their medicinal qualities are according to the standard Pharmacopoeia of the United States. These are plain facts and cannot be disputed.

When you take Tonall you know just what you are taking. There are no habit forming drugs or opiates used in Tonall to cause momentary stimulation and when the effects die off you are worse off than before. Tonall builds up the whole system by purifying and enriching the blood, strengthening nerves, adding tone and vitality causing you to eat, sleep, because you are taking nature's own production intending to relieve ailments with which mankind suffer.

Tonall is sold at Edgar Warfield's, Jr., Drug Store, Corner King and Pitt Streets, Alexandria, Va.

Why Suffer So?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills Alexandria people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit? Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. A. Waring, 519 Patrick St., Alexandria, says: "I suffered from my back and inflammation of the bladder. I was in such misery during these attacks that I had to have injections of morphine to relieve the pain. My back ached so badly, I thought it would kill me. Pain in the top and back of my head nearly drove me insane. I often got so dizzy I could hardly keep from falling. Nothing did me any good until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Leadbeater's Drug Store. The first box gave me great relief. I used several boxes altogether and they stopped the awful pain in my back and head and made my kidneys normal. Since then, I have taken Doan's as soon as I have noticed any signs of kidney disorder and they have never failed to give quick relief."
